Testimonials from our SHCS Community

Sacred Heart Cathedral School is the loving, safe, Christ centered, family environment I had been searching for for my own family. Attending Catholic school all my life I longed for my children to have that wonderful experience of their own. We are so blessed to be part of the Sacred Heart Cathedral community, having been welcomed with warm open arms.
- Current Parent

Watching our three daughters grow at Sacred Heart Cathedral School, in a small Catholic school environment, has been such a gift—where excitement for learning is nurtured, faith is woven into each day in quiet, meaningful ways, and teachers love and support our girls as if they were their own.
-Kathleen Whibbs, Current Parent

Sacred Heart Cathedral School represents the very best of what a community can be when faith, education, and service come together. I love this school because it nurtures not only academic excellence, but also compassion, leadership, and a deep sense of responsibility to one another. It is a place where children are taught to think critically, lead with kindness, and show up for their neighbor. Values that strengthen families and build a stronger Pensacola for generations to come.
-Melanie Luna, Current Parent, Substitute Teacher, Volunteer

Sacred Heart Cathedral School is a place that feels like home. I know that the adults in this community genuinely care for my children and want to see them grow into the people that God is calling them to be.
-Carolyn Salamida, Parent, Teacher, Parishioner

Sacred Heart Cathedral School is like a warm hug. The teachers, administration and staff seem to truly care about the kids and their well being. It is a community meant to lift up the children so they grow into people who have love and service in their hearts and a love of Jesus in their lives. We could not be luckier to be a part of the Sacred Heart family.

The Cathedral's Living Room

Erica Maloney, Director of Faith Formation

During our parent speaker series as I was preparing to welcome parishioners into Ave Maria Hall for a night of fellowship and honest conversation, I was overcome with the distinct feeling that in reality I was opening up "the parish living room" of the Cathedral for the night. It immediately brought a spark of joy to my heart.

This visual of the family living room has continued to ring true for me as I have reflected on what the opportunities in faith formation provide for the Cathedral community and her growing number of families. I have had the honor of witnessing a bustling room of families, parishioners and choir members in the Hall enjoying dinner and fellowship at 5:15 pm on many ordinary Wednesday evenings.

In the Gospel of Mark, after a somewhat grueling period of work and ministering to the multitudes, Jesus said to his disciples:

"Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while. People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat (Mark 6:31)."

Whether we are meeting for Moms Group, the Men of St. Joseph, an Adult Bible Study, Choir, informally hanging out by the playground after Mass or hosting our free Wednesday evening dinner and faith formation for all ages, we are opening up our Cathedral home and inviting parishioners and visitors to sit and stay for a while in our parish's family living room. It is an opportunity to truly come as you are, bring your faith along with your questions and doubts, and receive encouragement, prayer and support for wherever you find yourself on life's journey.

A living room is a place of rest, reset and comfort, of friendship – of truly being known, seen, and loved by others – and often it is where family life thrives in both its' chaos and joys. It is a place where everyone in the family is welcomed and there is always room for just one more on the couch.

I hope and pray that this is what we continue to provide as the Cathedral community for all individuals and families on our parish campus. A place of rest and encounter with the Person of Jesus Christ, where He is waiting to welcome every person through the loving fellowship of our parish living room.

Just as we gather for Mass at the altar and share the Sacred Meal around the family dining table, we gather and share the fruit of that communion that starts and ends in the Eucharist whenever we gather with one another in our "parish living room" for spiritual growth and friendships rooted in Christ.

Perhaps you are looking for "something more" – a new or deeper connection – within the Cathedral and her ministries. I invite you to reach out to the parish office any time or talk to fellow parishioners. We would be happy to help you find deeper connection within our community.

There is plenty of room on the couch for you!
