

FIFTH SUNDAY OF Easter

“I give you a new commandment:
love one another.
As I have loved you,
so you also should love one another.
By this everyone will know
that you are my disciples,
if you have love for one another.”

— JOHN 13:34-35

Gospel Reading John 14:1-12

As Jesus approaches his Passion, he reassures his disciples not to be afraid but to have faith, and reveals the mystery of the Father. When Philip asks, “Lord, show us the Father, and we shall be satisfied” (Jn 14:8), Jesus responds with a decisive revelation: “He who has seen me has seen the Father” (Jn 14:9). In Christ, God is no longer hidden—He has made His face visible.

Jesus brings to fulfillment all mediation between

God and humanity.

While figures like Moses served as mediators of the covenant (cf. Gal 3:19; Acts 7:35; Jn 1:17), Christ is the one and definitive mediator of the new and eternal Covenant: “For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus” (1 Tim 2:5; cf. Heb 8:6; 9:15; 12:24). In Him, we encounter the Father, call upon God as “Abba,” and receive the gift of salvation.

EL DIEZMO

es un signo externo de nuestra confianza y esperanza en el Señor. Como enseñó Jesús al observar a la viuda en el Templo:

“ —Les aseguro que esta viuda (...), en su pobreza, ha dado todo lo que tenía para vivir. Marcos 12, 43-44 ”

En este espíritu, el diezmo es un acto consciente y público de gratitud por las gracias espirituales que Jesucristo derrama continuamente sobre nosotros, reconociendo que todo lo que tenemos proviene de Dios.

CONTRIBUCIÓN

Gracias Señor por confiarme esta parroquia, y confiando en Tu gracia, me comprometo a dar un diezmo semanal.

Lectura del Evangelio Juan 14:1-12

A medida que Jesús se acerca a su Pasión, asegura a sus discípulos que no tengan miedo, sino que tengan fe, y revela el misterio del Padre. Cuando Felipe pregunta: "Señor, muéstranos al Padre, y estaremos satisfechos" (Jn 14:8), Jesús responde con una revelación decisiva: "El que me ha visto, ha visto al Padre" (Jn 14:9). En Cristo, Dios ya no está oculto, ha hecho visible su rostro.

Jesús hace que toda mediación entre Dios y la humanidad se
